Beyond The Rainbow

By Cate Guyan © 1995

As much as I loved the life we had and all the times we played,
I was so very tired and knew my time on earth would fade.
I saw a wondrous image then of a place that's trouble-free
Where all of us can meet again to spend eternity.

I saw the most beautiful Rainbow, and on the other side
Were meadows rich and beautiful -- lush and green and wide!
And running through the meadows as far as the eye could see
Were animals of every sort as healthy as could be!
My own tired, failing body was fresh and healed and new
And I wanted to go run with them, but I had something left to do.

I needed to reach out to you, to tell you I'm alright
That this place is truly wonderful,
then a bright Glow pierced the night.

'Twas the Glow of many Candles shining bright and strong and bold
And I knew then that it held your love in its brilliant shades of gold.

For although we may not be together in the way we used to be,
We are still connected by a cord no eye can see.
So whenever you need to find me, we're never far apart
If you look beyond the Rainbow and listen with your heart.

A Bridge Called Love

It takes us back to brighter years,
to happier sunlit days
and to precious moments
that will be with us always.
And these fond recollections are treasured in the heart to bring us always close to those from whom we had to part.

There is a bridge of memories
from earth to Heaven above...
It keeps our dear ones near us

It's the bridge that we call love.

We Remember Them

Reverend John Drinkard

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,

ALL: We remember them

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of Winter

ALL: We remember them

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of Spring

ALL: We remember them

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of Summer,

ALL: We remember them

At the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of Autumn,

ALL: We remember them

At the beginning of the year, and at its end,

ALL: We remember them

When we are weary and in need of strength,

ALL: We remember them

When we are lost and sick at heart,

ALL: We remember them

When we have joy we crave to share,

ALL: We remember them

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,

ALL: We remember them

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,

ALL: We remember them

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,

ALL: As we remember them.

BUTTERFLY MEMORIAL POEM

A rush of wings
They flutter high
To touch the sun
And kiss the sky.

by Lili Pintea-Reed

A butterfly
Is with us now
No more a caterpillar
Upon a leaf.

Our Loved Ones with angel wings
A soaring butterfly
With us they sing.

May the morning sun caress you.
The rains of change refresh you.
And the gentle breeze of His Spirit
Lift the wings of your transformation.

I'm Still Here

Friend, please don't mourn for me
I'm still here, though you don't see.
I'm right by your side each night and day
... And within your heart I long to stay.
My body is gone but I'm always near.
I'm everything you feel, see or hear.
My spirit is free, but I'll never depart
As long as you keep me alive in your heart.
I'll never wander out of your sight
I'm the brightest star on a summer night.
I'll never be beyond your reach
I'm the warm moist sand when you're at the beach.
I'm the colourful leaves when Autumn's around
And the pure white snow that blankets the ground.
I'm the beautiful flowers of which you're so fond,
The clear cool water in a quiet pond.
I'm the first bright blossom you'll see in the spring,
The first warm raindrop that April will bring.
I'm the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine,
And you'll see that the face in the moon is mine.
When you start thinking there's no one to love you,
You can talk to me through the Lord above you.
I'll whisper my answer through the leaves on the trees,
And you'll feel my presence in the soft summer breeze.
I'm the hot salty tears that flow when you weep
And the beautiful dreams that come while you sleep.
I'm the smile you see on a baby's face.
Just look for me, friend, I'm every place!
