OPENING PRAYER and WELCOME

A CALL TO REMEMBRANCE

Chaplain Bill DeVizio

In the name of the one God, author and source of all life,
We gather to honor the particular lives of ones whom we have loved.

ALL: Heal our minds, O God.

We come to remember them and to express our profound gratefulness for having shared in their lives.

ALL: Heal our hearts, O God.

We come to receive comfort and healing in our sorrow.

ALL: Heal our spirits, O God.

We come to receive renewal of our faith and hope.

ALL: Heal our lives, O God.

Bless us in this house, O Lord, as we worship you, as we remember our loved ones.
We come as we are able: both willing and hesitant, both broken and mending, both with thanksgiving and with anger, both with faith and with doubt.
Accept us as we are and renew us through your unfailing and everlasting love.

ALL: Amen

The Dash Poem

By Linda Ellis

I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend.

He referred to the dates on her tombstone
From the beginning to the end.

He noted that first came the date of her birth
And spoke of the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time
That she spent alive on earth
And now only those who loved her
Know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own,
The cars, the house, the cash,
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.
So think about this long and hard;
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left

That can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect
And more often wear a smile,
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a little while.

So when your eulogy is being read
With your life's actions to rehash
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash?

RESPONSIVE READING

“We Remember Them”

Angela Edson

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,

ALL: We remember them

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of Winter

ALL: We remember them

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of Spring

ALL: We remember them

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of Summer,

ALL: We remember them

At the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of Autumn,

ALL: We remember them

At the beginning of the year, and at its end,

ALL: We remember them

When we are weary and in need of strength,

ALL: We remember them

When we are lost and sick at heart,

ALL: We remember them

When we have joy we crave to share,

ALL: We remember them

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,

ALL: We remember them

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,

ALL: We remember them

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,

CLOSING PRAYER AND BENEDICTION

Chaplain Bill DeVizio

We offer our sincere appreciation to the professional staff members, clergy and volunteers who helped with the service.

We extend our appreciation to all our families and friends, staff, board members, friends of hospice and volunteers who have come to participate in this time of remembering.

We acknowledge and thank the community of the Presbyterian Church of Newton for their hospitality.

REFLECTIONS ON LONGSUFFERING

Lord, transform our suffering into growth

Our tears into prayers

Our discouragement into faith

Our fears into trust

Our expectations into hopes

Our anger into closeness

Our bitterness into acceptance

Our guilt into reconciliation

Our loneliness into contemplation

Our silence into peace

Our deaths into resurrection

Amen
